ARTIST

Nickola Magnolia is an independent Canadian singer-songwriter and live performer blending gritty alt-country, retro soul and rock & roll. Her music pairs raw, soulful storytelling with the swagger of outlaw country and the energy of classic rock. Honest, unapologetic and built for the stage.

BAD WOMAN 2026–2027

Nickola's sophomore album is a gritty record about taking back your story: survival, self-respect and freedom. It blends outlaw country soul with retro rock & roll, written for the misfits, wild hearts and women who refuse to shrink themselves.

THE SOUND

Outlaw soul with a vintage edge: country storytelling, retro-soul warmth and rock & roll grit. The live show moves between intimate honesty and full-stage energy, a natural fit for festivals, theatres, listening rooms and roots-focused events.
